

Random Act of Kindness Day in Centre Wellington Nov. 2nd

October 9, 2018 - Centre Wellington ON – For Immediate Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Centre Wellington Community Foundation (CWCF) has taken a lead role in once again initiating this amazing day in Centre Wellington. This year's Random Act of Kindness Day takes place Friday, Nov. 2, 2018. The message is simple; do something nice for someone and ask nothing in return other than they do something nice for someone else.

“We had such good participation last year, we want to bring it back again for the second year. Every day is a great day to show acts of kindness to others, but it's important to have a day where we shine a light on the kindness we see all the time here in Centre Wellington,” said CWCF Executive Director Raymond Soucy. “

We are encouraging local businesses, schools, organizations and individuals to get involved by promoting the day within their own offices, classrooms, boardrooms, and networks. Contact CWCF to register and receive a free Kindness Kit.

The Centre Wellington Community Foundation invites everyone to share their kind deeds on Facebook or Twitter using the hashtag #RAKday. You can follow Random Act of Kindness Day Centre Wellington on Twitter at #RAKDayCW and on Facebook at facebook.com/CWCFdn

Contact Raymond Soucy at raymond@cwcfoundation.ca, www.cwcfoundation.ca or 1 888 713 4083 to get more information about getting involved.

About The CWCF

The Centre Wellington Community Foundation (CWCF) is a public, charitable foundation created by the people of Centre Wellington. Our mission is to strengthen the Centre Wellington community by helping donors to achieve their giving goals, and by helping local non-profits find resources to support their important work.

Since 2008 Random Act of Kindness® (RAK) Day has brought together Canadian communities by engaging citizens in small acts of kindness and generosity.
