

CWCF grants $8,000 from the Jack R. MacDonald Community Fund

January 3, 2024 - Centre Wellington, ON – For Immediate Release

The Centre Wellington Community Foundation's Jack R. MacDonald Community Fund's 2023 granting program has made two grants totalling $8,000 to local organizations. Grants supported projects that will have a positive impact within the former Village of Elora boundaries.

The Grove Hub Fergus received $2,000 towards helping to provide transportation to youth from Elora so they too can take full advantage of all the activities being offered at the Grove Hub in Fergus. The grant will help break down barriers to access for Elora youth.

A second grant of $6,000 went to the Elora Singers for their Supportive Arts for Adults with (dis)Abilities program run in partnership with the Elora Centre for the Arts. From January to December 2024, the Elora Singers are offering weekly choral music as part of the Elora Centre for the Arts' Supportive Arts program for adults with (dis)abilities.

About The Jack R. MacDonald Community Fund:

The Jack R. MacDonald Fund was made possible by the generous donation from Jack R. MacDonald. The fund honours his legacy of support to the former Village of Elora. For many years Mr. MacDonald donated to fund projects in Elora. The Jack R. MacDonald Charitable Trust was created upon his death in 2013. The Township of Centre Wellington was one of five organizations that received funds from the trust. Seed money for the Jack R. MacDonald Community Fund came from a donation from the trust fund.
